

Reach Academy Information Evenings at Curtis School

We invite you to join us for an upcoming Reach Academy for Young Men Information Evening—your chance to learn why our five-week summer institute has become one of Los Angeles’s most distinctive programs for boys.

Reach blends leadership development, hands-on academics, and relational learning in a culture where boys feel both challenged and known. From Robotics and Creative Writing to Law & Leadership, Athletics, Mindfulness, and team-based problem solving, boys grow in confidence, curiosity, and character.

This summer, we are thrilled to launch the Discovery Program for rising 6th graders—a new experience designed to support boys on the transition into middle school through adventure-based learning, foundational skills, and Reach’s signature mentorship model.

We’re thrilled to share that 100% of our staff will return for Reach 2026!

That kind of commitment speaks volumes. It’s proof that our mission—learning, leadership, and positive masculinity—is resonating deeply with our students and educators alike.

Reach isn’t just a summer program—it’s a community that lasts.
